

Guidelines of Cyta Forum

Welcome to Cyta Forum.

Through the Forum, you can exchange opinions, information and make queries regarding the products and services of Cyta.

Our goal is this Forum to be a peer-to-peer Community.

Before making your first post, have a read of our user guidelines. We have these rules to make sure that the Community is a friendly and useful place to visit and search for information.

1. What is my role in the Community?

Our purpose is to build a thriving Community which you can help achieve by being positive and constructive with your posts, and by treating each other with respect.

Posting questions and answers on topics you may be familiar with should always be on topic.

Any post on the Forum expresses only the views of its author and is in no way adopted by Cyta or the users of the Forum.

2. Be specific

Users should give detailed questions, as well as specific and accurate answers in order to be understandable by all the users.

3. Stay on topic and post in the right boards

Posts about Cyta's products and services in the right topics and boards make it easy for others to find the information they are looking for.

4. Information accuracy

Cyta does not guarantee the accuracy of the technical information posted by the Forum users, since they are based on their own experience.

5. Posts should not:

- Be defamatory, threatening, abusive, harassing or invasive of a person's privacy
- Infringe a person's right of freedom of speech
- Be sexist, racist, profane, blasphemous, homophobic or be in any way discriminatory and/or offensive
- Promote violence or advocate, urge or assist any unlawful act
- Describe violent intentions towards other people or organizations
- Be pornographic, sexually explicit, obscene or lewd
- Infringe any copyright, trade mark or any other rights of any person or organization
- Violate any law in any way

Cyta reserves the right to take legal actions in case of an infringement of the above guidelines.

6. Generating audio-visual content

All user generated audio-visual content should conform to the following:

- It should be a maximum of three minutes long
- Submission of any audio-visual content to the Forum constitutes that you are aware of and possess all the appropriate permissions
- Audio-visual content should not endanger yourself or others

- Should not infringe the intellectual property rights of any person by unauthorized use of trademarks, logos or any other protected content owned by a third-party.

7. Discussions going off topic

Discussions of topics should be limited to Cyta's products and services, without any reference to the services and products of other providers.

8. Spam

Duplicate posts are not allowed, as well as spam posts such as advertisements for other web sites and services, or other advertising motivations, chain letters or pyramid schemes.

Discussions of P2P (peer to peer) software and the file sharing over the internet are allowed. However, sharing illegal copies of software is not allowed.

9. Additional reminders

Do not post any personal details or information of yours, or anyone else's on the Forum.

Whatever is published on this public site is permanent and anybody can read your entries.

10. Changes to these Guidelines

The present guidelines could be revised at any time without any warning.

11. External links

Cyta has no liability for the availability or content of any external websites or material you access through our site.

Cyta is not liable for any content, product or service advertisements, information or any other material available on third party websites.

12. Data protection

Cyta protects the personal data of its customers and complies with the current legislation. For further information please refer to our Privacy Policy.

13. Under 18

Minors are not allowed to use the Forum.

14. Signatures

Keep your signature short without anything illegal or offensive.

15. Limitation of Liability

Users use the Cyta Forum at their own risk. Cyta shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered from the content posted on the Cyta Forum. Cyta's liability is limited to the removal of any content that infringes the present Guidelines.

16. Breach of these Guidelines

Posts which do not comply with the current Guidelines will be removed. Cyta reserves the right to suspend your account without any notice, and to reinstate it only after the examination of the complaint has been completed.
