

Unexpected Overflow Error 7032

This error can occur when there has been a short power outage, and/or connection to the key has been interrupted. Close the error message and any AccuMark windows you may have open. Restart the AccuMark programs and the error should have gone away.