

Each device needs its own unique Public/Routable IP address

Any device in front of the Edgemarc network device must not be set to perform firewall functions. Any device that is performing firewall actions, must be beside the Edgemarc. Double NAT'ing will render the solution not functional.