

Add Account

Is this a single mutual fund account?

Yes

No

Some brokers track your mutual funds by creating separate accounts for each fund.

These accounts contain only a single mutual fund.

They have no other types of securities such as stocks or bonds.

They do not have a cash balance. Depositing money immediately purchases shares of the fund.

If you purchase another mutual fund, a new account is created.

Cancel

Back

Next