Congratulations on your scholarship! The Quad Cities Community Foundation and its donors are happy to provide financial assistance for your higher education expenses.

Payments covering your scholarship will be forwarded to the school you identify below. We will begin sending scholarship payments at the beginning of July. To ensure your check reaches your school before the school year starts, please complete this form as soon as you have decided on what school you will attend. If you have received more than one scholarship from us, you will need to fill out a separate Student Information Sheet for each scholarship.

If you are a recipient of a renewable scholarship, we will assign you additional followup forms in this system so that you can provide us with your transcript at the end of your spring term.

If you have any questions, please call 563-326-2840 or email scholarships@QCCommunityFoundation.org.

Stewardship

Normally, we would host a reception for you, your family and our scholarship donors, to recognize your achievements in receiving this award - but as you know, nothing is happening as normal these days.

The pandemic has cost high school seniors so many special occasions this spring. Your achievements deserve celebrating, and we hope you will help us celebrate – virtually – with the people who established your scholarship. While this celebration will be different than in years past, we hope you will find it meaningful.

Many of our donors really look forward to the scholarship reception. It reminds them why they established a scholarship fund in the first place; helps them connect with the dreams and challenges of the next generation; and most importantly, it offers a safe space to associate hope and joy with what can be a painful memory - the loss of a loved one. (If you are receiving a "memorial" scholarship, that means that the scholarship fund was established in memory of someone who has passed away).

Now more than ever, we need a reason to celebrate! So, we are still going to connect you to your donor and celebrate your accomplishments!

The questions below will be used to share a little bit more about you with our scholarship donors. We will compile some of this information into a package that we mail them.

We will also ask you to record a short video using a platform called ThankView that will help us create a virtual "thank you card" for your donor.

You will receive an email from my colleague Joscelyn Rowe, with more instructions on the video.

Thank you for taking the extra time to do this for us this year. We really appreciate it, and I know our donors will too!

Thank you*

Please write a descriptive thank you note to the donor and scholarship committee here. Scholarship donors love to hear from you!

If there was a donor story referenced at the top of your online application form, please read it. If anything about the story resonates with you, your family, or your future plans, please mention that here.

Your note shows appreciation and seeing the impact a scholarship has had on you encourages donors to give in the future, supporting more students!

Please attach at least one print-quality picture here. If you have electronic copies of your senior photos you can use those.

We would love to send our donors more than one picture, if possible. Think about pictures that best represent you - your favorite sports? your favorite activities? your favorite food? Important people in your life? Your favorite place?

Please use the space above each upload button to tell us why you chose these pictures.
